Property Description

The ground floor is a former stable with the original manger and storage space.

The first floor is the main living area with good size kitchen / dining room with woodburner leading down a step to a double bedroom with ensuite and off that a smaller single room.

The second floor consists of one large light room, originally a hay loft, with a new roof, beams and ceiling with velux windows. This room is an empty space ready for further ideas and development, possibly a studio or bedrooms (50m²).

There is also space for parking in front of the house.
