Property Description

A 6 bedroom stone house with a pool, set on high grounds with lovely views over the Quercy Blanc countryside and with 2H of private land. The property is in excellent condition throughout, retaining a myriad of period features and character. The house is set on the outskirts of the small village with a private driveway in a truly remarkable setting. Within a 10 minute drive to the bastide village with restaurants, shops and a weekly market. Toulouse airport is 98 km away and Cahors train station is 34 km. The beauty of this house and stunning views must be seen to be appreciated.
