The new French region of Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur has got to be the most famous in the world, and there's good reason for it. Not just the climate, but the countryside that inspired many artists and writers. Go from the Opulence of Monte Carlo to the rugged hills and valleys behind. Golf, tennis and sailing never too far away. Behind the coast, but never far from the bright lights down on the Mediterranean. Nice Airport is about 45 minutes away, while Les Arcs station is 30 minutes. Never far from smart shops, cafés, restaurants and supermarkets. Lots of daily markets here and in the charming villages behind here.
