Property Description

With a living area of 110m², this house is organized on the ground floor into a large living room with fitted kitchen, upstairs 3 bedrooms and a bathroom and finally, on the last level, a large bedroom with access to the terrace.

Beaumont de Pertuis is a dynamic village with local shops and school infrastructure.

The Magic of the Luberon continues to draw people here: the light, climate and countryside has inspired many artists and writers to Provence. Golf, and tennis are never too far away. This village is one of many with its old walls and church, seen from miles. Close to shops, cafés, restaurants and supermarkets. Lots of daily markets in the charming villages behind. Do not forget the wine region here, but also the walks across the famous hills. To own a house in the Luberon district is wonderful,
