Former clothing factory transformed into an events centre

€395,000

Ref: BVI28608

Property Description

This former factory has been transformed into a bright spacious events centre and is looking for its next imaginative owner. With 360m² of habitable space and 5 shower rooms, this could make a wonderful character residence, a superb business centre or boutique apartments. Brimming with original features, including the old stone-built chimney for the steam power unit. The property comprises office space, conference room, reiki room, huge reception area, large kitchen and a studio apartment. Located in a bustling town with many shops and amenities. A short drive to the Aveyron gorge with its medieval villages and summer activities.
