Maxilly which is 3 km east of EVIAN-LES-BAINS on the shores of Lake Geneva. Bordered by the lake to the north, Maxilly rises to an altitude of 800 m to the south and forms a magnificent belvedere facing the coast and the Swiss Jura. Due to its proximity to the Swiss border of Saint Gingolph, the town attracts many cross-border commuters. Its economic activity is also based on the presence of craftsmen and businesses grouped together in a small craft area.

The village center has all the amenities: local shops, restaurants, school. The rest of the town is organized in quiet and green neighborhoods.
