Property Description

Great value farm offering plenty of possibilities and located in a quiet hamlet. The main house has been well renovated and has an open plan kitchen and dining room . The large lounge has a wood burning stove although there is the possibility of central heating via the back boiler on the kitchen range. Laundry room and downstairs shower room and W.C.

Upstairs are three double bedrooms and two bathrooms. All well insulated and decorated. The large stone barn can be accessed from the house. In addition there is a workshop, second barn and an amazing tobacco barn. The land is flat and stretches to a large field with room enough for animals. There is also large plot of wood in the same commune, in total 1.3 hectares of land. Short drive to market town of Civray or the Chaunay for good access onto RN10.
