Stone property with outbuildings

Property Description

Situated in a small hamlet in the Perigord National Park is this stone property with outbuildings and a further property to fully renovate (major structural works needed - not for the faint hearted!). On the ground floor is a small lounge with wood burner, a kitchen, and an entrance hall with doors leading out to a covered eating area. On the first floor there is a family bathroom and 3 bedrooms - one of which overlooks the kitchen and accessed from a staircase in the kitchen. Outside there is a pretty front garden and land of 2046m². Barns attached to the side and the rear of the property.
