Property Description

This Corbieres village house is well located in the heart of the village less than an hour from the sea and a short walk to the village restaurant. The main house was built in the 1930s with renovation undertaken more recently. It offers spacious accommodation overlooking the pretty walled courtyard garden. Central heating and double glazing throughout with some art deco character features remaining. There is a downstairs bedroom and shower room in addition to the office, living room and farmhouse style kitchen. Each bedroom upstairs has a balcony overlooking the easy to maintain garden. A separate annex houses an additional bedroom/shower room. The large basement is a bonus games and storage room leading onto a workshop garage. Its all in a good condition and ready to move straight into.
