Property Description

Found in a superb location close to Place des Vosges in the Marais, with its multitude of galleries, restaurants and boutiques, this gorgeous property also overlooks an enchanting courtyard.

o Both light and bright throughout, this two-bedroom apartment feels like home from the moment you walk in the door.

o Situated on the third floor, as well as the large living area there is a fitted kitchen, two bedrooms and smart bathroom.

o Dating from around 1900, highlight features include the big windows, attractive balustrades and charming wooden flooring.

o Beautifully furnished throughout, in a chic contemporary style, there is also plenty of storage space to be found here.

o Just steps away from Place des Vosges, the city's oldest planned square, there is also a great market close by for all your fresh produce, delicious cheeses and delightful French specialities.

o This is a lovely apartment, with everything you could need, in one of the best locations in the city - and then there's that courtyard view.
