Property Description

Originally a 14th century church and rebuilt with most of the stone, this atmospheric semi-detached house has been lovingly and sympathetically restored, retaining many original features and radiates warmth and energy. The property is located on a no through road in some lovely Breton countryside and sits on 1016m² of lovingly tended gardens, in keeping with the house and the surrounding area. The house offers you a spacious lounge with a magnificent original stone open feature fireplace, a kitchen/dining room again with an original stone fireplace, a bathroom with hand built stone bath lined with Italian tiles and a bedroom on the ground floor. The first floor has another bedroom and a mezzanine floor currently used as a further bedroom, with views down to the kitchen area creating a superb feature. This very interesting property has a great feeling to it and early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate its charms. dont 6.00 % honoraires TTC à la charge de l'acquéreur.
