Property Description

This superb 17th century property is located in the region of Carcassonne, Languedoc-Roussillon, Occitanie, South of France. The domain of 5 hectares comprises a superbly renovated main house and cottage creating gite accommodation and a cosy, well designed restaurant for all-year dining with, additionally, large enclosed terraces that can cater for bigger events, dancing, seminars, marriages and large-scale summer BBQ's. The 5-bedroom gite can comfortably sleep 14 guests with its own large function room, bar and pool table. Outside a small river feeds a large pond for duck and geese, adding to the ambience of the outdoor dining spaces, and the superb secure swimming pool with a large sunbathing area and hot-tub, the lawns, and children's play area provide amusement for all the family. The property has been well-thought out, providing ample backroom facilities for storage and food preparation. This is a wonderful commercial project with a renowned restaurant and gite business in a relaxing setting at the foot of the black mountain that you can simply pick-up and put your own stamp on, or develop the business to your own ideas. A superb business opportunity in hospitality awaits you!
