Property Description

Privately set behind gates and a long driveway, this stunning 12-acre property enjoys a calm and peaceful environment and unparalleled views of Mont Ventoux, the Monts de Vaucluse, and the valley below. This picturesque stone farmhouse has been entirely re-imagined to ensure an excellent standard of modern living in one of the most bucolic settings the region has to offer. The accommodation, on the garden level comprises: sleek dining kitchen; open-concept sitting room with oversized windows and a wood burner; home office; guest WC. French doors throughout ensure seamless indoor-outdoor flow and an abundance of natural sunlight. The ground floor comprises: entrance hall with guest WC; two spacious double bedroom suites, each with great views and a private shower room; large utility room with an abundance of storage space; authentic wine cellar. The property's garage lies on this floor. The upper floor accommodates a third double bedroom with a shower room en suite. The property is adorned with an expansive roofed terrace that extends out from the kitchen. This terrace is fitted with ceiling fans and built-in seating to guarantee a tremendous outdoor living space with truly spectacular views. Stylish timber decking surrounds the 9m x 4m swimming pool. A charming courtyard, series of raised terraces, and a firepit area provide additional entertaining spaces. An olive grove and Petanque court lie just beyond the pool area, surrounded by indigenous flora and herbs, and the property's oak woodland. Additional amenities include: fibre optic internet; double glazed wrought-iron windows; underfloor heating throughout; UV water filtration system; several outbuildings. Two reservoirs (totalling close to 70.000L) provide storage for water with additional tanks for rainwater collection. A private water source supplies the house and the garden. Furniture and the sophisticated smart home management system can be purchased with the property. Traditional charm meets contemporary flair in this impressive rural retreat, conceived for living and entertaining in a uniquely stunning setting. A vast variety of hiking, trail running, mountain biking and cycling paths and tracks lie on the doorstep, with perched villages, vineyards, and gorgeous scenery in every direction. The house is conveniently located close to the villages of Venasque and Saint-Didier, home to a boulangerie, several restaurants and the famed weekly farmer's market. The perfect Provencal hideaway for nature lovers!
