Property Description

Located in the heart of the sought-after village of Cabrieres-d'Avignon, this 18th century stone property enjoys generous living spaces, a large walled garden, and an abundance of innate architectural character. The property is filled with natural light from a host of French windows, which is further amplified by high ceilings and the elegant decor that flows throughout. The accommodation comprises, on the ground floor: beautifully proportioned sitting room with fireplace; Provencal kitchen; 'Petit salon' or home office; double bedroom with vanity; guest loo. The first floor is composed of: master bedroom with Juliette balcony; further double bedroom; large bathroom with shower and loo; home office; shower room with loo. The second floor accommodates a double bedroom that benefits from a private sitting room area. Hidden behind the property's walls, the south-facing garden offers a generously sized outdoor living space adorned with a swimming pool and large paved terraces. A roofed terrace with direct access to the kitchen provides an escape from the sun. The recently installed 8m x 4m heated swimming pool has been a tremendous addition to this outdoor space and ensures that all comforts are catered for within the property's walls. This meticulously maintained stone house has been thoughtfully updated over the years with care paid to the preservation of its gorgeous authentic features. Provencal ceilings, hexagonal terracotta tiling, hardwood doors and stonework guarantee an unrivalled level of charm throughout. The layout ensures that the property is ideally suited for entertaining guests, comfortable year-round living, and relaxing holiday retreats. The roof has been entirely replaced and insulated, and a discreet central air-conditioning system installed throughout the first and second floors. The renovated attic space offers generous storage space with easy access from the first floor. The property also has oil-fired central heating. A beautiful Luberon property, just a short walk from the local boulangerie, Bistrot, grocer's and butcher's.
