Property Description

Located less than 10 minutes from the ever-desirable market town of L'Isle sur la Sorgue, and set on over 7 acres of manicured gardens and private grounds, stands this magnificent 19th century bastide. The ground floor accommodation comprises: large sitting room with wood-burning stove and oversized wrought-iron French windows; secondary sitting room with ornate stone fireplace; formal dining room; chic kitchen with decorative cement tile flooring and Lacanche range; utility room; laundry room; two guest loos. These ground floor living rooms feature impressive ceiling heights, gorgeous authentic features, and large arched windows, inundating these spaces with natural light. A spacious bedroom suite with a private bathroom and WC completes the ground floor. Two staircases serve the first floor. The accommodation on this floor is composed of: four large suites, each with an adjoining shower room and toilet; two spacious double bedrooms; home office; guest bathroom; guest loo. Imposing wrought-iron gates welcome you at the entrance of the property, opening to unveil a beautiful driveway lined with lavender and fruit trees. Beyond this lies a generous parking area equipped with an awning with 4 cars, a Tesla charging point, and an outdoor tap. This 7-acre estate enjoys remarkably maintained grounds, with an impressive array of seating areas, a petanque court and a 12m x 6m heated swimming pool with a wave machine. The swimming pool area offers complete privacy from the rest of the property and is surrounded by meticulously kempt trees and a rose garden. A large terrace runs along the front of the Bastide, shaded by magnificent centenary plane trees. A summer kitchen complements this space, offering a particularly pleasant and well-conceived outdoor living space to accommodate family and friends. Amenities include: an automatic watering system, recent electric heaters, reversible air conditioning in each bedroom, a videophone, internet. The roof will be completely redone and a room of about 40 m² added to an upper floor. The innate charm and striking majesty of this estate ensure that it would make a terrific Provençal retreat or luxurious residence. It would be equally suitable as seasonal rental investment or a bed & breakfast.
