Property Description

Nestled in a bucolic setting and surrounded by vineyards and woodland, this contemporary property offers a convenient single-storey layout, an impressive living space, and a private wooded garden - all in the heart of the Luberon's Golden Triangle. The front door opens onto a 55m² living space composed of: well-equipped dining kitchen with decorative cement tiling; relaxed seating area arranged around a pellet burning stove. This space features a great ceiling height with exposed beams, a ceiling fan, oversized windows, and a remarkably chic decor complemented by waxed cement flooring. The living space leads into a large office space with the master suite just beyond. The suite accommodates a dressing room area, a spacious double bedroom and a bathroom with shower and loo. A garage, utility room and guest loo complete this property. The large living room (55m²) could be partially divided to accommodate a second bedroom if desired (3D model provided below). The garage (19m²) could also be converted to extend the living space. Amenities include; automatic gates, videophone, reversible air-conditioning and a ceiling fan in the living room, and modern double-glazing. The property is connected to mains drainage and town water. The 0.41-acre wooded plot provides complete privacy and grants a pretty view of the surrounding woodland and vineyards. Large sliding windows from the living space open onto an outdoor dining terrace. A swimming pool could be installed in the garden if desired. A wonderfully chic and well-positioned Luberon property, within walking distance of the Luberon village of Saint-Pantaleon
