Property Description

Located in the center of a popular tourist area in the Bastide town of Domme opposite the Place de la halle.

The current owners of 43 years are now selling due to retirement with a vacant possession.

This once thriving hotel and restaurant was previously licensed for 140 guests in the bar, 2 restaurants and alfresco terrace. There are two basements with a wine cave, 2 cold storage rooms and a dry store.

The Hotel has 11 en-suite bedrooms over two floors.

In need of complete updating/modernization. Options would be to update the existing hotel, bar and restaurant, or renovate entirely and create four self-catering/residential apartments, or a large home with endless retail opportunities on the ground floor.
