 Nestling on the edge of a small, friendly hamlet, just a 5-minute drive from the popular village of Brehan, where you will find all amenities including supermarket, doctors and dentist, is this beautifully renovated south facing 3 bed stone house oozing charm and warmth. Stone walls and exposed beams feature throughout, giving the property it's charm. The house sits on just over an acre of land with stunning views over the surrounding countryside. Double gates from the driveway lead to the front of the house onto a graveled area where you will also find a covered patio, ideal for relaxing and enjoying the peaceful environment. The house offers on the ground floor of a kitchen/dining area featuring a range style gas cooker with large oven, gas and electric hobs, an ESSE wood burner with oven and two hobs and a wall mounted heat exchange system which can also expel air conditioning when needed. A small step to one side

Property Description

 Nestling on the edge of a small, friendly hamlet, just a 5-minute drive from the popular village of Brehan, where you will find all amenities including supermarket, doctors and dentist, is this beautifully renovated south facing 3 bed stone house oozing charm and warmth. Stone walls and exposed beams feature throughout, giving the property it's charm. The house sits on just over an acre of land with stunning views over the surrounding countryside. Double gates from the driveway lead to the front of the house onto a graveled area where you will also find a covered patio, ideal for relaxing and enjoying the peaceful environment. The house offers on the ground floor of a kitchen/dining area featuring a range style gas cooker with large oven, gas and electric hobs, an ESSE wood burner with oven and two hobs and a wall mounted heat exchange system which can also expel air conditioning when needed. A small step to one side leads into the lounge and to the other side into a room with extra storage cupboards, space for tumble dryer and in turn to a hallway with door into a shower room with newly fitted, fully tiled shower cubicle. On the first floor there are 3 bedrooms in total. One is accessed by a staircase from the hallway by the bathroom whilst the other two by the staircase leading up from the kitchen. Here you will find a landing area with picture window, making full use of the beautiful views. One of the bedrooms includes an ensuite bathroom complete with slipper bath to relax in.
