Property Description

This town house with small garden and parking space dates back to 1787. It was enlarged with an extension in 1992.

Over two levels it offers an entrance hall, large living room with an insert fireplace, dining room, kitchen (to be refreshed), pantry, office, boiler room and a bathroom (to be refreshed) on the ground floor and a large landing/games room, three bedrooms, bathroom and a WC at first floor level. The living room opens onto a pretty terrace and the garden.

The house benefits from (mains) gas-fired central heating, double glazing throughout and is connected to the town's mains drainage system.
