Property Description

Stone house with magnificent undulating grounds planted with trees.

Lots of possibilities for this property, which offers various areas to rethink both inside and out.

This house currently has 3 bedrooms, one of which is en suite, with the possibility of 2 additional bedrooms after works, subject to the necessary authorisations.

The stone barn could also be converted into a stable or guest house (possible gite business - subject to the necessary permits).

Contact us to find out more about this property and all its conversion options.
