Property Description

This south-facing stone house with a surface area of approx. 260M2, including an adjoining barn, will enable you to create your very own dream home! (subject to the necessary authorizations)

The barn could be converted into a large living room with sloping ceilings and magnificent beams.

Outside you'll find the old pig pens and a covered terrace.

If you're interested in renovating a charming stone building, contact us to find out more or schedule a visit!
